

HATS AND WRAPS.

Many Flowers and Brilliant Colors For Fashionable Headgear.

Colored straw hats and bonnets are very numerous. Very yellow straw, trimmed with lace and white gauze, is much liked. The bright reds, blues, violets and greens enjoy a considerable degree of favor, and hats composed of two colors of straw are also worn, the crown being of one color and the brim of another. Flowers are used to an immense extent, roses, lilies of the valley, poppies, carnations, iris, blue, primroses and violets being mingled with gauze, black, white or colored. Illusion is used in the same way, being tucked, shirred and puffed and made into bows and choux.

Green is first favorite among colors just now. It is seen in all shades and varieties of tone, and green hats or hats with green trimming are a feature of the season. Nearly all flowers are represented in this shade, besides the more natural looking copies of ivy, ferns and other foliage. Green tulle is much employed in millinery, and green straws with flower trimming are among the most effective hats seen.

Summer capes are exceedingly pretty and attractive. For general use the cape of cloth, relatively simple, is preferred. It is of gray, beige, sable, mode and mastic tones and is occasionally seen in blues, greens and browns, but the lighter and vaguer shades harmonize better with all the costumes of the wardrobe. The ornamentation consists sometimes of stitching alone, the note of elegance being given by the lining, which is of silk, usually flowered. Small buttons are likewise used in profusion; also stitched straps, embroidery, soutache and applications of lace. These cloth capes are more elaborate than they have been hitherto, and it is a question when the present rage for overtrimming will subside. Of course there will be a revulsion to extreme plainness and dullness sooner or later. It looks now as if it would be later.

An illustration is given of a Louis Seize hat of green fancy straw. It is turned up behind under a fan of white and blue green tulle. In front is a bow of black velvet ribbon adorned with two paste jewels. At the sides are short wreaths of pansies, and roses are placed next the hair at the back.
